1815.

GENERAL POST-OFFICE,

February 8, 1815.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to inclose, for the consideration of the house of representatives, a report of unproductive post-roads, and a list of contracts made in the year 1814.

With great respect,

I am, sir,

Your obedient servant,

R. J. MEIGS.

Hon. Langdon Cheves,

Speaker of the House of Representatives:

GENERAL POST-OFFICE, February 8, 1815.

THE Post-master General, in compliance with the 37th section of the act for regulating the post-office establishment, respectfully reports:

THAT the following twenty-seven post roads, have not, after the second year from their establishment, produced one-third of the expense of carrying the mail upon the same. Which is respectfully submitted.

R. J. MEIGS.
