TO THE PUBLIC.

The undersigned, in presenting this Directory to the public, deems it due to himself to say, that it has been delayed much beyond the period anticipated for its publication, mainly in consequence of the time necessarily consumed in numbering the houses, (a work absolutely essential to the usefulness of the Directory,) and partly from the inexperience inseparable from a first undertaking. He has spent much time, labor and money, in preparing this first effort, and hopes that with all its defects, it may prove satisfactory to the public. The book contains all promised in his Prospectus, and in addition a Map of the city of Pittsburgh, parts of Allegheny, Birmingham and South Pittsburgh, taken from the large Map of Pittsburgh and its environs now preparing and shortly to be published by R. E. M'GOWAN, Esq.

SAM'L FAHNESTOCK,

PITTSBURGH, AUGUST 1, 1850.

NOTE TO THE MAP.

The mark on the Map of Pittsburgh, between Point street and Point alley, about forty-six feet west of Point street, and about one hundred and twelve feet north of Penn street, indicates the position of the Redoubt, built by Col. HENRY BOGGET in 1764; and is the only remaining monument of British skill and labor, at the head of the Ohio.

To see this Redoubt, it is necessary to pass from Point street along a nine feet alley, called Brewery alley, leading towards the Monongahela; and when at the distance of forty-six feet from Point street, the Redoubt will be seen about eight feet north of the visiter. The Redoubt is that square portion of the building, next to Brewery alley. The back portion of the building, which is higher than the Redoubt, was built by TURNBULL, MARMIE & Co. in 1785, and was occupied as a dwelling by WILLIAM TURNBULL, and afterwards by MAJOR ISAAC CRAIG.

It is greatly to be desired, that it should be preserved and kept in repair.

BUSINESS OF PITTSBURGH.

There are in Pittsburgh and its vicinity, thirteen Rolling mills with a capital of about $5,000,000, and employing 2,500 hands. These mills consume about 60,000 tons of pig metal, and produce bar iron and nails amounting to $4,000,000 annually.

There are also 30 large Foundries, together with a great many smaller ones, having a capital in all amounting to about $2,000,000, and employing not less than 2,500 hands. These Foundries consume 20,000 tons pig metal annually and yield, with the labour employed, various articles amounting to about $2,000,000.

There are 2 establishments manufacturing locks, latches, coffee mills, patent scales, with a great variety of other malleable iron castings, with a capital of $250,000 and employing 500 hands, consuming 1,200 tons pig metal, and producing goods amounting to $300,000 annually.

There are 5 extensive cotton factories, besides many smaller ones, with a capital in all amounting to about $1,500,000, and employing 1,500 hands; these establishments consume some 15,000 bales cotton and produce yarns, sheeting, batting &c. amounting to upwards of $1,500,000.

There are 8 flint glass manufactories with a capital of $300,000 invested, employing 500 hands, consuming 150 tons lead and 200 tons pearl ash, and producing various articles of glass ware amounting to $400,000.

There are 7 phial furnaces and 11 window glass manufactories, with a capital of $250,000, employing 600 hands, and producing $600,000 annually.

There is also a soda ash manufactory, producing 1,500 tons annually, employing 75 hands.

There is one copper smelting establishment, producing 660 tons refined copper annually, valued at $380 per ton, and amounting to $250,000.

There is also a copper rolling mill now in operation, producing 300 tons sheeting and braziers copper, amounting to $150,000 annually.

There are 5 white lead factories with a capital of $150,000 invested, and producing 150,000 kegs lead annually, worth $200,000, and employing 60 hands.

There are also a number of manufactories of the smaller sizes of iron, several extensive manufactories of axes, hatchets, &c. spring steel, steel springs, axles, anvils, vices, mill, cross cut, and other saws, gun barrels, shovels, spades, forks, hoes, cut tacks, brads, &c.

There are also in full and successful operation an establishment manufacturing cast, shear, and blister steel, and files, all said to be of a very superior quality, besides a great variety of manufacturing establishments not enumerated in our list; and after a careful investigation we find that with our manufacturing and other business, taking all together the actual amount does not fall short of $50,000,000 annually.

There is consumed about 12,000,000 bushels of coal annually in our manufacturing establishments, valued at $500,000 and an equal number of bushels exported to the lower markets, giving employment to upwards of 4,000 hands.

The imports by the Pennsylvania canal from the 10th March to the 1st July of the present year is
